"I just want to do a good job."

Katy always goes fast. She ties her shoes faster every day. One day Katy loops her strings around and around. She goes too fast. She makes knots. "I can't untie these knots," Katy says.

"You have to slow down," David says. He takes his time and unties all of the knots. "Now you can try again. Don't go so fast this time."

Katy slows down and ties her shoes. "Thank you, David. You are the best."
