

Name: _____

Reading - Real or Fantasy

If an event or thing can really happen, then it is real.

Things that can't really happen are fantasy.

example: John runs across the football field. (real)

John flaps his arms and flies over the city. (fantasy)

Read each sentence. Write an F by the ones that are fantasy. Write an R by the ones that are real.

1. _____ The milk is cold.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

5. _____ I drove the car down the road.

6. _____ The toys played with each other when the kids left the room.

7. _____ The cat meowed loudly.

8. _____ When the car got tired, it stopped to take a rest.

9. _____ The water froze and turned to diamonds.

10. _____ The invisible kitten played with a ball of yarn.

ANSWER KEY

Reading – Real or Fantasy

If an event or thing can really happen, then it is real.

Things that can't really happen are fantasy.

example: John runs across the football field. (real)

John flaps his arms and flies over the city. (fantasy)

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

10. F The invisible kitten played with a ball of yarn.