

Spring Writing Prompts

Describe your favorite springtime sport or outdoor activity.

What is springtime like in your hometown? Describe your hometown on a typical spring day using all five senses.

Write a poem about spring using the words daffodils, rain boots, pond, showers, and ducklings.

If you could go anywhere in the world for spring break, where would you go and why?

Many people do spring cleaning in their homes. How can you help out? Tell what area of your home

Write a creative poem titled, "Splashing in Puddles."

Which would you rather have for a pet: a baby bunny or a baby chick? Give three reasons

Imagine you are going to plant a vegetable garden this spring. Write about your

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

and bugs? Tell why or why not.

grown in the gardens around your home.

ample, your poem might be titled, "It's Raining Tacos" or "It's Raining Cats and Dogs."

thing you can start doing today to help keep our planet healthy.

Imagine you were building a kite. What would it look like? How big would it be? Where would you fly it?

Imagine you are a ladybug. Write about the things you see and do.

St. Patrick's Day, Earth Day, and Easter are all springtime holidays. Which is your favorite springtime holiday? Tell how you celebrate it with your friends or family.

Write a creative poem titled, "The Little Seedling."

