Name: _____

Writing Expressions

Write an expression using a variable to represent each situation.

1. The chinchilla weighs 11 times more than the gerbil.   _____

2. Azari bought 8 brownies but gave some away.   _____

3. Mr. Sosa evenly split some candy among 20 students.   _____

4. The dog only ate 2 of the treats Raya gave it.   _____

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

9. Some of this piano's 88 keys stopped working.   _____

10. Ms. Bryan has been teaching thrice as long as Mr. Ali.   _____

11. It took Lea 7 minutes longer to finish than Neil.   _____

12. Forrest is doubling the amount of vanilla.   _____

13. Hayley has 9 plants, but she is buying more.   _____

14. A group of friends are cutting up a pizza equally.   _____

15. Pedro slept half as long as Mallory did.   _____

One-Step

Writing Expressions

Write an expression using a variable to represent each situation.

1. The chinchilla weighs 11 times more than the gerbil.   11g

2. Azari bought 8 brownies but gave some away.   8 − b

     c
     —

14. A group of friends are cutting up a pizza equally.

     m
     —
     2

15. Pedro slept half as long as Mallory did. $\frac{m}{2}$

TL