

Who am I?

Monday's
Clue

Fifty-six men signed the Declaration of Independence. I was one of them. I also helped write this famous document that announced that the thirteen states were no longer part of the British Empire.

Who am I?

Tuesday's
Clue

I had many interests. I could speak well in five languages and was able to read in two more languages. I liked to write. I penned about sixteen thousand letters in my life.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Here are three quotes attributed to me:

"Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today."

"When angry, count to ten before you speak. If very angry, count to one hundred."

"Whenever you do a thing, act as if all the world were watching."

D-4

I accomplished many things in my life and held a number of important jobs. I helped establish the University of Virginia. I sold my large collection of books to Congress and it became the start of the present Library of Congress.

D-4

Who am I?

Friday's
Clue

I worked as a lawyer. I served as governor of Virginia, a U.S. minister to France, secretary of state under George Washington, and vice president under John Adams. (Unfortunately, John Adams and I did not get along!)

Who am I?

Bonus
Clue

If you have not yet guessed who I am, perhaps my last clue will help – I was the third president of the United States.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

I am Thomas Jefferson.

D-4

Who am I?

I Know It!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I Know It!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I Know It!

Name: _____

Who am I?

I Know It!

Name: _____

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I Know It!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I Know It!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____