

Site and Sight

The words site and sight may sound like similar words, but they have very different meanings.

A site can refer to a website.

A site can also refer to an area of land where a monument, building, or town is built.

examples: Evans read an interesting article on his favorite site.
The hospital will be built on a site near City Hall.

Sight refers to a person's ability to see.

Examples: Tiffany wears glasses to improve her sight.
I watched the airplane in the sky until it was out of sight.

Write the word site or sight in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

- I looked at a blueprint of the construction _____.
- Abib checked his favorite weather _____ to see the forecast.
- Grandma Nora doesn't have good _____ anymore.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

- The _____ where the daycare is being built used to be an open field.
- If you have 20/20 vision, it means you have very good _____.
- Paul wrote down the web address of the _____ he used in his research project.

ANSWER KEY

Site and Sight

The words site and sight may sound like similar words, but they have very different meanings.

A site can refer to a website.

A site can also refer to an area of land where a monument, building, or town is built.

examples: Evans read an interesting article on his favorite site.
The hospital will be built on a site near City Hall.

Sight refers to a person's ability to see.

Examples: Tiffany wears glasses to improve her sight.
I watched the airplane in the sky until it was out of sight.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

