

Through and Threw

The words through and threw sound the same, but they have very different meanings.

Through means moving in one side and out the other side, or moving around within something.

examples: Maggie's mom drove through the car wash.
The sun shone through the clouds.

Threw means tossed something in the air.

examples: Bo threw a ball for his dog, Willow.
My dad and I threw the football around the backyard.

Write the word through or threw in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

1. The pitcher _____ the baseball, and the batter swung his bat.
2. Brielle looked _____ the telescope at the moon and stars.
3. I watched the dolphins swim gracefully _____ the water.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

8. Paolo _____ the juice bottle into the recycling bin.
9. Grandpa and I took a walk _____ the woods.
10. Evelyn looked _____ her reading assignment when she got home from school.

ANSWER KEY

Through and Threw

The words through and threw sound the same, but they have very different meanings.

Through means moving in one side and out the other side, or moving around within something.

examples: Maggie's mom drove through the car wash.
The sun shone through the clouds.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

10. Evelyn looked through her reading assignment when she got home from school.