

Name: _____

ELA Buzz

An adjective is a word that tells you more about a noun.

example: I have a purple jacket.
adjective noun

Circle the adjective in the sentence.

Don't forget your warm mittens.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

cape •

cab •

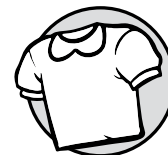

things you wear on your head

things you wear on your feet

Write the correct end mark to complete the exclamation.

That's the prettiest shirt I've ever seen_____

Name: _____

ELA Buzz

Find the mistakes in the sentences.
Then rewrite them correctly.

Miles and malcolm is twins 3 errors

they was born 15 minute apart. 3 errors

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

to buy Miles a gift.

Color the 5 words that have the short i sound.

wish

party

kid

dance

gift

twin

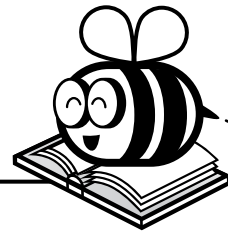

big

life

night

- a. I bought Miles and Malcolm a present.
- b. Miles was not present in class today.

Name: _____

ELA Buzz

Write the numbers 1, 2, and 3 next to each sentence to put them in order.

_____ Finally, I ate breakfast.

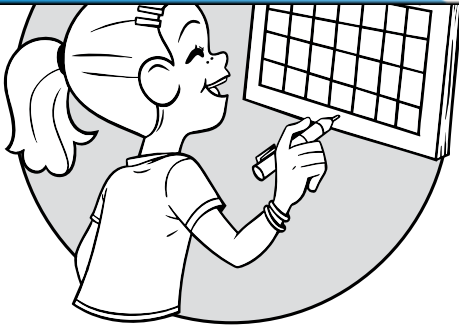

_____ First, I woke up.

_____ After that, I got dressed.

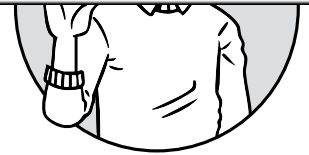

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

up so early _____

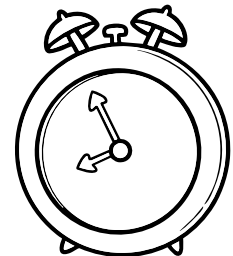

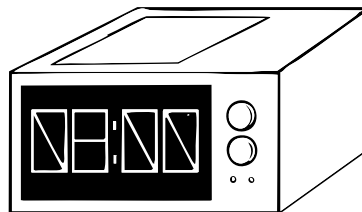

ready _____

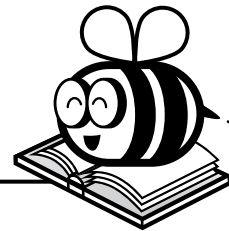

calendar _____

time _____

Circle the round clock.

Name: _____

ELA Buzz

Find the mistakes in the sentence.
Then rewrite it correctly.

Joey and i seen a cute puppie
at the park. (3 errors)

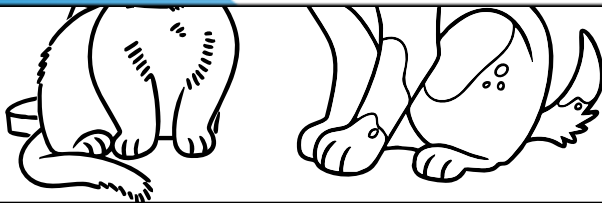

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

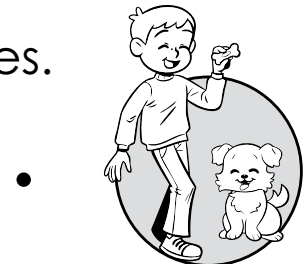

pet.

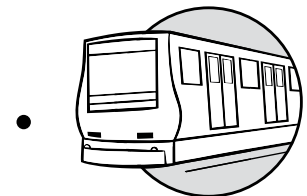

two words.

Draw lines to match the sentences to the pictures.

Mrs. Wilson takes a train to work. •

I train my dog to sit. •

Name: _____

ELA Buzz

Fiona the fairy and Polly the bee were best friends. One day, Polly flew over to Fiona. Polly looked sad.

“What’s wrong?” asked Fiona.

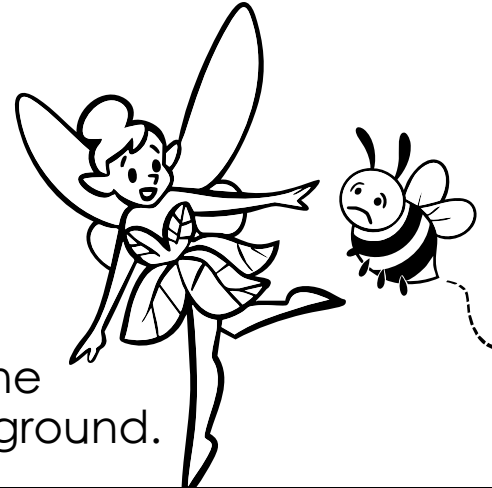

“My favorite flower is gone!” cried Polly.

Fiona looked at the grass. It was true. Polly’s flower was gone!

“Don’t worry!” said Fiona. “I can help!”

Fiona waved her wand. She pointed it at the grass. A bright pink flower sprouted from the ground.

“It’s perfect!” said Polly. “Thank you!”

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

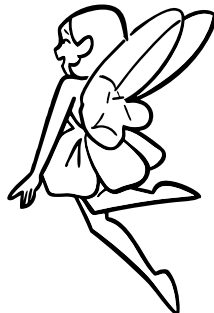

a. sad

b. happy

c. mad

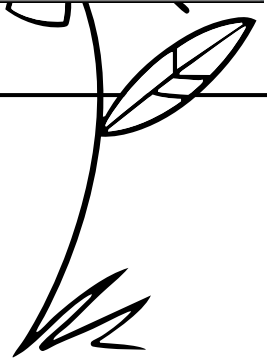

Does the sentence tell about the past, present, or future?

The fairy is flying from tree to tree.

Underline the 2 vowels in the word.

f l o w e r

Write numbers 1–4 on the lines to put the words in ABC order.

_____ grass

_____ fairy

_____ trees

_____ bumblebee

An adjective is a word that tells you more about a noun.

Circle the adjective in the sentence.

Don't forget your warm mittens.

Draw lines to match the words to the pictures.

cap

cape

Sort the words.

helmet	hat
shoes	socks

things you wear on your head	things you wear on your feet
-------------------------------------	-------------------------------------

helmet

shoes

Write the correct end mark to complete the exclamation.

That's the prettiest shirt

I've ever seen !

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

1. Is this passage fiction or nonfiction?

fiction

2. What is another word for sprouted?

a. fell b. sunk c. grew

3. How did Polly feel at the end of the story?

a. sad b. happy c. mad

Underline the 2 vowels in the word.

f l o w e r

Does the sentence tell about the past, present, or future?

The fairy is flying from tree to tree.

present

Write numbers 1-4 on the lines to put the words in ABC order.

3 grass
4 trees
2 fairy
1 bumblebee