

1. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these dogs' leashes?

Did you rip the book's cover?

2. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

leaf

Those _____ colors are all changing.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

batch's

batches'

batches

I burned this _____ cookies!

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats
are black.

That cat's coat
is black.

The umbrellas' handles are soft.

5. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these dogs' leashes?

His story's ending is sad.

6. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

house

Who fixed those _____ roofs?

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

scarf's

scarves'

scarve's

Both _____ middles are torn.

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats are black.

That cat's coat is black.

The quizzes' questions were hard.

9. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these dogs' leashes?

That island's shore is sandy.

10. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

Alaia

Do you have _____ number?

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

childrens child's children's

The three _____ game is noisy.

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats are black.

That cat's coat is black.

Where are the wolves' dens?

13. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these dogs' leashes?

The beach's view is amazing!

14. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

river

This lake is both _____ source.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

pens'

pen's

pens

My _____ cap is missing!

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats are black.

That cat's coat is black.

Those bushes' branches are too long.

17. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these
dogs' leashes?

What is her poem's title?

18. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

ax

That _____ blade is very sharp.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

birds'

bird's

birds

This _____ beak is bright orange.

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats
are black.

That cat's coat
is black.

Where is these puppies' owner?

21. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these dogs' leashes?

This index's headers are bold.

22. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

Juelz

My friend _____ room is messy.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

calf's

calf's'

calves'

Are those _____ moms nearby?

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats are black.

That cat's coat is black.

Her parents' car won't start.

25. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these
dogs' leashes?

My backpack's pockets are big.

26. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

city

Who is our _____ mayor?

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then choose the correctly spelled possessive form of the noun to complete the sentence.

country's countries' countrys'

What is your _____ name?

Rewrite the sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example:

Those cats' coats
are black.

That cat's coat
is black.

The peaches' pits are huge!

29. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Rewrite the sentence using a plural possessive noun.

Example:

Where is this dog's leash?

Where are these
dogs' leashes?

Where are the canoe's paddles?

30. Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Use context to tell whether the missing word is singular or plural. Then complete the sentence with the correct possessive form of the noun.

baby

The two _____ rattles look the same

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

Name: _____

Task Cards: Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Write the complete sentence using the correct possessive noun.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

9. _____

10. _____

11. _____

12. _____

13. _____

14. _____

15. _____

Name: _____

Task Cards: Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Write the complete sentence using the correct possessive noun.

16. _____

17. _____

18. _____

19. _____

24. _____

25. _____

26. _____

27. _____

28. _____

29. _____

30. _____

ANSWER KEY

Task Cards: Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Write the complete sentence using the correct possessive noun.

1. Did you rip the books' covers?

2. Those leaves' colors are all changing.

13. The beaches' views are amazing!

14. This lake is both rivers' source.

15. My pen's cap is missing!

ANSWER KEY

Task Cards: Singular & Plural Possessive Nouns

Write the complete sentence using the correct possessive noun.

16. That bush's branches are too long.

17. What are her poems' titles?

28. The peach's pit is huge!

29. Where are the canoes' paddles?

30. The two babies' rattles look the same.