Where Do You Live?
By Lill Pluta

Urban City

Glass and steel apartment buildings.
Taxis honking, traffic yielding.
Ride the subway. Catch a train.
Construction workers steer a crane.
Streets are noisy, bustling, gritty,
Here inside my awesome city.

Rural Countryside

Houses spread out far apart with miles and miles between.
Grazing cows and wide blue skies create a peaceful scene.
Tractors, silos, big red barns, a hay field freshly mowed.
Lumber trucks go rumbling past the fruit stands by the road.
To shop, we have to drive to town, but I don't really mind.
At night, I watch the twinkling stars and let my brain unwind.
