

Name: _____

Library Treasures

By Guy Belleranti

The library's calling.
Please come inside.
I'm sure you will love it.
I'll be your guide.

There are helpful people,
Computers, too.
And thousands of treasures—
Books old and new!

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

Books thick and thin,
Thrilling books, chilling books,
Books to make you grin.

The tour will end now,
But before you go home,
Why don't you borrow
A few books of your own?

Name: _____

Library Treasures

By Guy Belleranti

1. The author of the poem says there are “thousands of treasures” in the library. What are they?

- a. computers
- b. magazines
- c. books
- d. gold coins

2. Which set of letters represents the rhyming pattern in the poem?

- a. A A B B
- b. A B C D
- c. A B A B
- d. A B C B

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

4. What suggestion does the author make at the end of the poem?

- a. sign up for a library card
- b. volunteer at the summer book sale
- c. borrow some books to take home
- d. use one of the computers

Name: _____

Library Treasures

By Guy Belleranti

Write about a time you visited your local library.
Who did you go with?
What was your favorite part?
Describe the types of books, magazines, or movies
you borrowed.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

ANSWER KEY

Library Treasures

By Guy Belleranti

1. The author of the poem says there are “thousands of treasures” in the library. What are they? c

a. computers

b. magazines

c. books

d. gold coins

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

d. use one of the computers

LD