American Flag

by Erin Ryan

Red and white with thirteen stripes,
Remind us of our past;
The colonies so long ago,
Some thought they'd never last

On a field of blue they're tiny strong,
A home for me, and you.

So wave your flag,
And show your pride and never let it fall;
And remember why we pledge each day
With liberty and justice for all.
