Name: _____

Latin Suffixes: -ment

The Latin suffix -ment changes many words from verbs into nouns.

Example: Advertise (verb) ➡ Advertisement (noun)

Directions: Change the given word into a noun by adding the Latin suffix -ment. Then use the new word in a sentence.

1.   The word amuse is a verb. It means "to entertain or humor."

Add the suffix -ment to make it a noun: _____

Now use the new word in a sentence:

_____

3.   The word pay is a verb. It means "to give money that is due for goods or services."

Add the suffix -ment to make it a noun: _____

Now use the new word in a sentence:

_____

4.   The word ship is a verb. It means "to transport goods or people."

Add the suffix -ment to make it a noun: _____

Now use the new word in a sentence:

_____