

Spelling Words

Spelling Words			❖ Basic Words
biography	vocabulary	thematic	narrative
pronunciation	metaphor	bibliography	literacy
genre	simile	citation	expression
epilogue	informative	analysis	★ Challenge Words
personification	explanatory	synonym
introduction	perspective	antonym
connotation	thesaurus		interrogative
			synopsis

Answer the questions.

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

- idea or feeling associated with or implied by a word or thing _____
- application of human-like qualities to something nonhuman _____
- a category of artistic style or content, e.g., fantasy, biography, etc. _____
- marked reference to a text, often listing author and page number _____

Fill in the missing letters to complete the spelling word.

- __ n f __ r m __ t i __ __ hint: providing facts and details; instructive
- t h __ m __ t i __ hint: relating to an overarching topic, idea, or message
- e p __ l __ g __ __ hint: additional content after the main work's conclusion
- __ n a l __ __ __ s hint: careful study of the components of something

Complete each sentence with a spelling word from the box.

biography

introduction

explanatory

antonym

pronunciation

perspective

vocabulary

thesaurus

13. Ms. Pastula told us every essay _____ needs to grab the reader's attention and give a preview of what the essay is about.
14. Julia read a fascinating book written from the _____ of a dog.
15. Achilles built his _____ using an app that teaches a new word each day.

understand what's being communicated.

Answer the questions.

21. Which basic word has a long vowel sound? What is the sound? _____
22. Which basic word can be used as both a noun and adjective? _____
23. In the word expression, which three letters make the /sh/ sound? _____
24. What vowel sound is in the third syllable of the word interrogative? _____
25. Which syllable is stressed in the word synopsis? _____

Spelling Words

Spelling Words			❖ Basic Words
biography	vocabulary	thematic	narrative
pronunciation	metaphor	bibliography	literacy
genre	simile	citation	expression
epilogue	informative	analysis	★ Challenge Words
personification	explanatory	synonym
introduction	perspective	antonym
connotation	thesaurus		interrogative
			synopsis

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

ANSWER KEY

Level F: ELA Words

Complete each sentence with a spelling word from the box.

biography

introduction

explanatory

antonym

pronunciation

perspective

vocabulary

thesaurus

13. Ms. Pastula told us every essay introduction needs to grab the reader's attention and give a preview of what the essay is about.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

